Summary

At Milliard Club, I lead the international sales and export team, bringing premium products to markets worldwide. With a Bachelor's degree in International Business from Westminster International University in Tashkent and years of expertise in global commerce, I specialize in market expansion, cross-border partnerships, and streamlined export operations.

Fluent in Uzbek, Russian, and English, I ensure seamless communication and collaboration across diverse regions. By combining strategic market insights with operational efficiency, I have successfully positioned Milliard Club as a trusted global brand in the industry.

A proud highlight of my career includes my experience in operational management, where I developed a keen analytical approach, balancing financial oversight with strategic growth initiatives. These experiences have strengthened my ability to navigate complex international trade dynamics, ensuring excellence at every stage of the supply chain.

If you're looking for a reliable partner to bring high-quality products to your market, let's connect! Together, we can turn business opportunities into lasting success.
